World Carnivals

Uniting the World

Carnival arts offers all of us a dynamic tool for self-expression and exploration, a tool to seek out our roots, a tool to develop new forms of looking at the world and its cultures, and finally, a tool to unite the world, to discover what we all have in common, and to celebrate what makes us different. The power and creativity that underlies these art forms can transform lives. Join hands with All Ah We, and together we will dance the song of life!

It is an annual celebration of life found in many countries of the world. And in fact, by learning more about carnival we can learn more about ourselves and a lot about accepting and understanding other cultures.

The origin of carnivals came from the hedonistic feasts of ancient Rome and Greece but their modern day celebrations were invented in the Spanish and Portuguese colonies. These festivals are well known for drinking, dancing dressing up and more often not dressing up!

Rio de Janeiro is the mother of all carnival celebrations around the world.

People of the region wait very desperately for the carnivals because this is the golden period for them whose cheerful images, they retain in their memories for the rest of the year or for the rest of their lives.

Wild Life Trips

Exceptional World Tours excels in providing innovative, quality safaris, Wildlife holidays to some of the most amazing destinations in the world. With a great selection of wildlife tours tailored to view some of the most charismatic and endangered animals on the planet we are sure you will find a wildlife watching tour which will take your fancy. We specialize in wildlife holidays to countries which are often difficult to get to and navigate around; however it is often these countries which provide some of the greatest wildlife spectacles.

It's no wonder that wildlife holidays are so popular. Watching wildlife is a great way to get back to nature and get away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. With so many wildlife holidays on offer in so many fabulous locations it's hard to decide where to go or what animals to see. So we've put together our top favorite wildlife watching holidays in various locations around the world, some in the very remote wilderness and some closer to home.

So whether you have 3 weeks to spare or 3 days there's a wildlife holiday to suit you. As many of the species featured on this list are endangered or protected species we make sure that these trips are run responsibly and respectfully. Many of our tour operators are actively involved in conservation projects so you can rest assured that your wildlife holiday will be run to look after the wildlife as well as you.

Adventure Trips

Known as the "nature people", Natural Habitat Adventures takes its guests on some of the world's best, and often remotest, nature expeditions. And they really do have the globe covered, visiting all the major wilderness areas of the world from the north and south polar regions to Africa, America, the Galapagos, Latin America, Asia and the Pacific. On these tours you could meet a polar bear, see a gray whale breach the waves, become part of a family of gorillas or hang out with Emperor Penguins. A real feature is the world class polar bear tours to Churchill, Manitoba.

Some sports can even thrill you with a feeling of adventure like buggy diving of Brazil, shot over jet and sky diving of New Zealand, scuba diving, etc. All tours are accompanied by naturalist and experts. If you are very firm in decisions and love facing challenges then it is your domain.
